

Polly Bitsui

Polly (Tulley) Bitsui is a retired elementary school teacher presently living in Blue Gap, where she was raised by her maternal grandparents. Polly is a team member in creating a Navajo Language Renaissance. She taught in Leupp School and for Chinle Unified School District at Tsaile Public School. Polly received her Bachelor of Science in Elementary Education in 1987 and a Masters of Education in 1996. Her first employment was at Many Farms Boarding school in January 1966 after graduating from high school. Many Farms Boarding School is the where Polly and Christine (Bason) Becker first met and became friends, and to this day they remain friends. Polly loves to travel outside of Arizona. After she retired she flew to Thailand and China to visit with Thai friends and has regular visits and vacations with her Rhonde Island, Boston & New Hampshire friends in Maine.
