

Christine Becker

Christine Becker is the President of Sundance Educational Consulting, Inc. and has been working as a teacher, administrator and consultant in schools for the past forty years. Christine is New Mexico State certified in both administration and teaching and is also manager and co-owner of Transitions, LLC. an Indian-owned consulting firm based in New Mexico. The focus of work for both Sundance Educational Consulting, Inc. and Transitions, LLC. is to provide support to schools and the communities they serve in addressing current needs for training and in finding ways to work together more effectively.

Ms. Becker is working through Sundance, Inc. and Transitions, LLC. to the further develop and implement State Standards-Based tools for teachers and parents to address the need to raise student achievement. The partnership between school - parent - student is an important goal of the work currently being done by Christine in schools across New Mexico and the Southwest.

Christine's experience includes having worked for many years as a teacher of students at all grade levels; 1st - 12th as well as in Special Needs classes. She has been an administrator of programs in curriculum development, improving cultural relevance in the classroom as well as a school principal. Her belief in school and community education as well as providing opportunities for young people whenever possible is what sustains her commitment to working in the field of education.
