

Michelle DeCanditis

Michelle DeCanditis is a retired Occupational Therapist and Hippotherapy Clinical Specialist with a master's degree in Human Movement. She has been actively involved in the horse world since childhood. Currently she blends her equestrian and professional experience to teach Horsemanship, developing and connecting horses and riders with a holistic mind/body approach.