

James LaPrelle

James LaPrelle is a retired B767 Captain with UPS and has been in the industry since 1968. Cpt. LaPrelle has taught numerous flight training courses from introduction to flight to advanced airline training programs. As a check-airman he has conducted flight simulator training and is noted as one of the pilots of the Goodyear Blimp “Mayflower”. Since retiring James has been highly visible in the NM movie industry. He has been in numerous productions ranging from westerns to dramatic Netflix series. James is also an accomplished guitarist who, in his heyday, was a member of the group “The Crowd”.