

Daryl Summers

Daryl Summers, BA, MA, of Portland Oregon, has been in the field of education for over 35 years. She has been a classroom teacher of students K-3, and a special education teacher for children grades K-12. She began her teaching experience as a grade 2nd - 3rd teacher at Many Farms Schools in Arizona. Daryl has served as a Director of federal BIA and state grants as well as a teacher training scholarship program. She was the Director of two early childhood programs (including FACE) at Chief Leschi Schools in Puyallup, Washington for many years. Daryl joins us with a wealth of knowledge of early childhood, special education, and parental and community involvement in the educational process. She is a joyful and enthusiastic presenter, always involving her audience in a variety of valuable (and often fun) experiences.
