

Kelly Zunie

Kelly Zunie has been making presentations for Sundance Educational Consulting in the areas of parenting skills, brain education, bullying, student behavior and other areas. Kelly recently served as Cabinet Secretary of The New Mexico State Indian Affairs Department. She is a graduate of George Wythe University, where she received a Bachelor's degree in Statesmanship. Kelly is Zuni and Cherokee, and is an enrolled member of the Zuni Pueblo. Prior to being appointed as Cabinet Secretary, she was the Deputy Cabinet Secretary of the New Mexico Indian Affairs Department. Her extensive work history includes working at Rocky Mountain Power in Utah, the Pueblo of Zuni and the New Mexico Bureau of Health Emergency Management. She has served on several boards and commissions in the State of New Mexico. When she is not working, Kelly Zunie loves spending time with her family, reading, and traveling. Her passion in life is teaching others to create the best life that they can possibly imagine. She is married and has four children, and a grandbaby.